

CAN YOU HELP TO DELIVER BETTER JUSTICE FOR FAMILIES?

JUSTICES' CLERK COUNCIL MEMBER

The Family Justice Council is an inter-disciplinary body whose members are drawn from a cross section of those who work, use or have an interest in the family justice system. They include judges, lawyers, doctors, social workers, academics and civil servants. The Council monitors the effectiveness of the Family Justice System, advising on reforms necessary for improvement and promoting an interdisciplinary approach to family justices in England and Wales.

A vacancy has arisen on the Family Justice Council for a Justices' Clerk/Assistant Justices' Clerk. You will have substantial experience in family proceedings, evidence of working, through interdisciplinary consensus, to deliver timely and improved outcomes for families and children who are involved with the family justice system. You will have experience as a team player and be able to prepare for and attend meetings of the Family Justice Council.

The Council meets four times a year and much of its work is done through its sub-committees and working groups. The post is for three years and is offered without remuneration. Reasonable travelling and other expenses are payable.

Further information on the Council and its current work can be found on our website: www.familyjusticecouncil.org.uk

Applications must be submitted by the 26th September 2008. Interviews are scheduled to take place during the week of the 10th November in London.
